SEVEN GUIDING PRINCIPLES

4 Pillars of Bioethics

intentional vs. unintentional violations role of self-awareness

“ONE DOESN’T HAVE TO DO GREAT MALICE TO DO GREAT HARM. THE ABSENCE OF EMPATHY AND UNDERSTANDING ARE SUFFICIENT.”

- CHARLES M. BLOW

Author

The Devil You Know: A Black Power Manifesto

Harm Reduction

“ANY APPROACH TO DRUGS HAS TO BE BASED ON PROTECTING HEALTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS. IT’S NOT ABOUT COMBATING DRUG MISUSE—IT IS ABOUT RESPECTING PEOPLE AS HUMAN BEINGS.”

- NAOMI BURKE-SHYNE
Executive Director
Harm Reduction International

Principles of Harm Reduction Psychotherapy

- Client-centered
- Non-judgmental
- Harm reduction focused
- Strength-based
- Collaborative
- Empowerment
- Respect for autonomy

Practice Groups

- Please choose your practice group by the end of today using the Survey in the Welcome Module.
- Tomorrow, we will post the groups and Zoom links.
- Each week you will meet for 45 minutes for practice. Each week you will have different practice activities.
- After each session, write a brief summary for your practice log.

Module 1

- Introduce yourselves to your group and be sure to include pronoun(s)
- You are encouraged to acknowledge the traditional and ancestral Indigenous territory(ies) you are participating from
- Describe your primary motivation for taking the course and your current area/background of practice

Module 1

- Reflect on the Integrative and Transformative care model and its Guiding Principles together. Is there a time when you sought health care, or were witness to someone's health care journey, where you either received (or did not receive) care aligned with this approach? What was this like? What could have been done better? What aspects of this care model do you wish had been present (if any) and how might this have changed your experience
